The Session Laws, etc., named above are distributed by the Librarian every two years (Section 7, Article 55). The Maryland Reports in accordance with Article 55, Public General Laws, 1912.

The Library is located in the Court of Appeals Building, Annapolis. It has on its shelves not only an extensive collection of law books, including an English collection, but a large number of exceptionally valuable reference volumes, many of which are now out of print, and which are being freely consulted by authors and others from all parts of the country, among them the four rare Audubon volumes; a complete file of the Maryland Gazette, one of the first newspapers published in this country; historical reference books of colonial times, and the records of the wars of the Revolution and 1812; books on travel, art and miscellaneous subjects, as well as fiction and the current magazines.

The reading room is open to the public daily, where any of the volumes in the Library may be utilized.

Members of the Library Committee are: A. Hunter Boyd, Chief Judge, Court of Appeals; Judge Wm. H. Thomas, Judge John P. Briscoe, and F. Herbert Tiffany, reporter of the Court of Appeals.

The State Library heretofore has been the distributive department for all stationary supplies, etc., to the Executive Office, the Court of Appeals and the Clerk's Office and also the General Assembly of Maryland. This duty has been transferred to the Central Purchasing Buread under the Act passed January Sessions 1920, Chapter 184.
